If the pet is pre-adopted the adopter agrees to return the pet to the rescue for their spay/neuter appointment. If the adopter prefers to utilize their own vet, they must provide proof of sterilization to the rescue within 30 days of adoption. _____ Initial Here

For Foster to Adopt Only

If a potential adopter would like a "trial run" period prior to adoption, the rescue may allow a temporary foster agreement. All foster homes require an approved home check. During the foster agreement, the rescue is responsible for all pre-approved medical expenses and the foster is responsible for food/supplies. The animal is the property of the rescue until the adoption contract is signed. _____ Initial Here

Adoption Contract (Rescue copy)

Furever Yours Pet Rescue and Placement Services Inc. in consideration of the adoption fee of which is acknowledged, releases full responsibility and ownership of the pet listed above.

The undersigned adopter(s) does hereby release and covenant to hold harmless Furever Yours Pet Rescue and Placement Services, its officers and directors from any claims against damages, costs or actions incurred as a result of this adoption or caused by the actions of the animal transferred herein. These rescues are from shelters and we cannot provide any health guarantees, however we have had them examined by a vet and will provide each adopter with a copy of the pet's complete medical records.

Further, the adopter agrees to abide by the terms and conditions as listed below:

1. Returns/Re-home- IF FOR ANY REASON, THE ADOPTION IS NOT SATISFACTORY THE ANIMAL WILL BE RETURNED TO FUREVER YOURS PET RESCUE. Please allow for a 5-7-day transition period. We will accept all returned pets within 14 days. Afterwards, it will be based on space. There will be no refunds made in either case. For the safety of the animal, we do not allow our adopted pets to be transferred/re-homed/sold to any other person without the permission from Furever Yours Pet Rescue.
2. Health-The animal will be examined, administered age appropriate vaccinations, spayed or neutered and micro-chipped. We highly recommend they be placed on heartworm and flea prevention. Any health questions during the first week after adoption will be referred back to the rescue for clarification. Again, many of these rescues are from the shelters and we cannot provide any health guarantees. We offer a free 30- day insurance policy through Pet First insurance that must be activated by the adopter.
3. Care & Safety-Care and feeding instructions are part of this agreement. The undersigned adopter accepts full responsibility for maintaining a reasonable level of care for the pet, including food, water, grooming, sanitation, safety and medical care. For the safety of the pet, the owner is also responsible for transferring the microchip and keeping the microchip information current.
4. Humane Treatment- Declawing, Dog fighting, or any form of abuse is not tolerated and the rescue will exercise its right to confiscate the pet. By signing this contract, the adopter agrees to abide by these stipulations.
5. Breed: The breed and age of each pet is an estimate by the shelter veterinarian. Because these are rescue animals we do not have information regarding both of the parents and therefore the breed and size is an estimate; we do not make any guarantees.
